

CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS.....	ix
1. INTRODUCTION: WHERE DID ALL THE HISTORY GO? .....	1
2. WHAT IS LIMINAL REMEMBRANCE? .....	9
2.1 Liminal Remembrance: The Concept of Liminality.....	9
2.2 Liminal Remembrance : Remembering and Forgetting.....	11
2.3 Liminal Remembrance, the Album and the Lexicon.....	16
3. LIMINAL REMEMBRANCE IN CONTEMPORARY IRISH POETRY .....	23
3.1 Some General Features of Liminal Remembrance .....	23
3.2 Type I: Indirect Memories of National History.....	26
Poems of Minimal Discrepancy.....	28
"To Smithereens" (Vona Groarke) 28 · "The News in 1974" (Iggy McGovern) 33
Poems of Medium Discrepancy.....	36
"At Shelling Hill" (Paula Meehan) 36 · "Townland" (Leanne O'Sullivan) 41
Poems of Large Discrepancy .....	44
"Commute" (Tom French) 44 · "Arrival" (Iggy McGovern) 48
3.3 Type II: National History and Family Memory.....	52
National History in Single Family Stories .....	52
"The Hyacinth under the Stairs" (Paula Cunningham) 54 · "The Scar" (Tom French) 61
National History and the Family Collage .....	64
"Of the gas stove and the glimmerman" (Paul Perry) 66 · "The Jeep" (Iggy McGovern) 71
3.4 Type III: National History and Authentic Memory .....	75
Poems on Concrete Photographs .....	79
"Red" (Tom French) 79 · "Manulla Junction" (Paula Meehan) 81 · "The Photograph of My Aunts" (Joan McBreen) 84
National History in 'Snapshot Memories' .....	85
"Moss" (Tom French) 86 · "Shelter (May 1976)" (Lorna Shaughnessy) 89
National History in 'Clip Memories' .....	95
"Safe House" (Leanne O'Sullivan) 96 · "Mallow Burns, 28th September 1920" (Martina Evans) 102

3.5	Type IV: Memory and the Metaphor of the Past as Waste .....	108
	Focus on Waster .....	110
	"The Skip" (Iggy McGovern) 110 · "Clear Out" (Kevin Higgins) 113
	Focus on Wasting .....	116
	"A Pyramid Scheme" (John McAuliffe) 116 · "Misery Hill" (David Wheatley) 119
	Focus on Wasted .....	123
	"Politics" (Paul Durcan) 123 · "Dogged" (Lorna Shaughnessy) 127
4.	THE BIGGER PICTURE: LIMINAL REMEMBRANCE IN IRISH CULTURE .....	131
4.1	Remembrance in Contemporary Ireland: Three Ruptures .....	132
	Disrupting the Myth – The Revisionist Debates.....	132
	Disconnecting the Past? – The Celtic Tiger Era.....	135
	Re-Connecting the Past? – Post-Celtic Tiger Ireland.....	137
4.2	Liminal Remembrance and the Irish 'Memory Crisis' .....	139
	Liminal Remembrance as an Expression of the Memory Crisis .....	140
	Liminal Remembrance as a Reaction Against the Memory Crisis.....	143
5.	CONCLUSION.....	147
5.1	Summary.....	147
5.2	Considerations for Future Research .....	152
	BIBLIOGRAPHY .....	155
	LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS .....	175
	INDEX OF POEMS .....	177